Multiple drug arrests made by EPD officers and CCSO deputies over three-day period

Law enforcement with the Elba Police Department [EPD] and Coffee County Sheriff's Office [CCSO] made several arrests last Friday, Saturday, and Sunday of suspects found to be in possession of illegal drugs.

During the Coffee County Commission meeting held Monday morning, March 27, Sheriff Scott Byrd said his office had utilized grant funding over the weekend to work more traffic detail, and that detail resulted in several arrests, including some for possession of ille-

Hayes Funeral Home Our Family Serving Your Family Since 1934

There are many reasons why you may feel lonely following the loss of a oved one. When a loved one dies, a hole is left behind that no one else can fill. You will miss your loved one's companionship, voice, or ever heir smell. Now that your loved one is gone, a piece of you is gone too. Even though there may be others who are grieving with you and experiencing the same loss, your feelings of loneliness are unique. That is because your relationship with your loved one is unique, nd your own social needs are also unique.

Here are some other common feelings associated with loneliness: Feelings of isolation. Following the loss of a loved one it is common to want to be alone. It can be hard to socialize with others when you are grieving. Unfortunately, this can also lead to feelings of isolation, which can make you feel even lonelier. Feelings of abandonment. It is also common to feel abandoned by your loved one. Grievers may feel left behind or deserted and ask questions like, "How could she have done this to me?" However, it is important to keep in mind that death is something we can't control and your loved one didn't leave you on purpose.

Feeling alone in a crowd. One thing you may notice is how you can feel lonely, even if you are in a group of people. While you are grieving, everyone else is going on with their own lives. Feeling so different from everyone else can make you feel lonely.

The loneliness of grief is difficult to solve, but one thing to know about loneliness is you can break out of it. When you are ready, reach out to those around you. Accepting help and love from those around you does not mean you are forgetting your loved one.

Share your feelings with a trusted friend or family member. If you don't have a friend or family member to talk to, consider joining a grief support group or talking to a counselor or therapist. You do not have to travel on your grief journey alone.

by Kit Johnson, Pastor Elba First Baptist Church

As Jesus neared the Mount of Olives, He sent two disciples into town to retrieve à donkey that he would ride into Jerusalem.

"Most of the crowd spread their coats in the road, and others were cutting branches from the trees and spreading them in the road. The crowds going ahead of Him, and from 1-5 p.m. those who followed, were shouting, 'Hosanna to the Son of David; Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest!" Matthew 21:6-9 (Other accounts of the Triumphant Entry can be found in Mark 11:1-11, Luke 19:28-44, and John 12:12-19)

When you hear April 2nd is Palm Sunday, this is why. The week Jesus was to be crucified began with Him being will be held April 10-12 New Beginning Christian the late Eva Lee Miller, is yet to come. In Matthew ushered into town as the King. Attitudes concerning Him at Greater New Zion Church, Brantley, Ala., and Gladys Wright would change drastically in just a few short days. The same Missionary Baptist Church the revivalist for Wednesday crowd that shouted "Hosanna to the Son of David" would in Elba. Services will be at night [April 12] will be Rev. But have you ever wondered how they 10 & 11] will be Rev. could change their mind about Jesus so quickly? Before you become overly critical of their decision, consider some of your own decisions concerning your spiritual walk first.

Those of us who have trusted in Christ as Lord now have the indwelling of the Holy Spirit; these individuals had never possessed the Spirit to this point. You may say, "well I never shouted crucify." David Crowder reminds us in his song Forgiven that it was just as much our sin that put Jesus on the cross as anyone.

One day we are praising Jesus for all that He has done in our lives and all that He has rescued us from, but the next moment we have been guilty of returning to the sin that we have been saved from. In the same way that they hailed Him as King days before they nailed Him to a cross, too often our lives demonstrate the same behavior.

We will not be perfect while still wrestling daily with the old flesh in this fallen world, but would you join me in committing to honoring the Lord with one's life as they did on Palm Sunday rather than their actions on Good Friday?

LPCE donates to community projects during "Share Pilot Month"

The Luncheon Pilot Club of Enterprise designates March of each year as "Share Pilot Month" whereby members present donations to deserving projects in the community.

Funds raised during the Annual Radio Day held each February make this possible, and the local merchants who faithfully support Radio Day ensure this can be continued. Representatives of some of the supported projects who were able to attend the March meeting were presented with donation checks and talked about how the donation will be used.

*** The area sports scene was busy again last week and the post-season picture is beginning to clear up a bit with three weeks left in baseball and four weeks left on Player of Year and Miss the softball regular season calendar. In baseball, it looks like Brantley will win its area and move on, as expected, while it also looks like Kinston and New Brockton will both head back to post-season play, and Zion Chapel will probably have to hang up the bats. Over on the softball field, every team in the state takes part in area tournaments to determine which teams advance to region play, and while there is still a lot of softball to be played, it looks like 'Miss Basketball' by the 5.0 rebounds, 2.4 assists, Brantley and Kinston will host the area tourneys as regular Alabama Sports Writers 5.8 steals and 1.3 blocks season area champs, while Zion Chapel and New Brockton will have to get on the bus and take their post-season hopes on the road. *** While there is certainly no doubt Miami has a really good basketball team and is deserving of a berth field and posted one win in in the Elite 8 of the NCAA Tournament, the Hurricanes sudden rise to prominence in the college basketball world can be directly tied to the lack of NIL rules. One billionaire last week's action: Miami supporter has no qualms about sharing his wealth to help the Hurricanes and his businesses sponsor more than 100 student-athletes at the university. The Hurricanes current point guard is a transfer from Kansas State that has a two-year contract with the supporter for $800,000 and a car, while another starter on the team's agent told school officials that unless his client got a raise he would transfer. Two sisters on the women's team at Miami that transferred in from Fresno State got a package deal worth $1.7 million, and while some of the wording of that contract resulted in the women's team being given a one-year probation and other sanctions from the NCAA, it did little to stop the hits, scored 1 run and had cash grab for the Hurricane athletes. I know all colleges 3 rbi's to lead Elba at the use NIL money to help recruit high school athletes and induce other college players to transfer. However, college had 2 hits, scored 1 run and sports have evolved into little more than minor leagues for had 1 rbi; Jaden Baker and professional sports, and it is rare that a high school athlete Skylar Mitchell both added will just pick a team because he wants to play for a coach, or because that school was his favorite team growing up. It is all about the money, and until the NCAA does something it will only get worse. Don't look for that to happen anytime soon, since the NCAA is a multi-billion-dollar organization that has sold out to big money, too!

*** In closing.... The start of the Major League Baseball season is only days away and I still don't know if I will get walks, with four strikeouts, to watch the Atlanta Braves or not. I read somewhere that while Dywys Reynolds Bally Sports would survive bankruptcy and televise the picked up the save. William games, while over the weekend an internet station named Adkison had 2 hits, scored FUBU announced for $25.95 a month it would provide baseball fans with a wide array of games in both leagues. lead the Gamecocks, while I am still a Braves fan, but I will not pay $25.95 to watch Colton Starling added 1 hit them play. So, I guess it's time to learn how to like soccer or maybe even bowling. It seems like both sports are always on one of the channels I already have.

Mr. Jason Tucker and the Elba High School show choir students have been working on their new play, Disney's "Beauty and the Beast Jr.®"

The group has been working their hardest on each scene trying to perfect it. The show choir students, such as the actors, the stage crew, and the ensemble, have been working on memorizing their parts in the play.

Some of the favorite parts of being in show choir for the students are the singing, the dancing, meeting new people, friends, the audience appreciating their hard work, and the feeling of weeks of practice coming I can make a positive impact together and perfecting the choreography for the days they perform. Each member her all into the play.

"My favorite part is seeing the growth," Tucker said. "Like any student, any level doesn't matter if they're experienced or inexperienced, it is seeing them gain some skills, get a little more confidence and grow." He said show choir allows students who have a lot of stage experience still try things new and get other skills while also allowing those with very little experience try new things too - just small steps and get experienced.

Tucker said he is very proud of all the students. For some, this is their first time being in a play or being in a show choir at all.

Beauty and the Beast Jr.® will be performed live on the Elba High School auditorium stage May 4th through May 6th. There will be multiple performances during these days to allow the community to come see the students' hard work.

Elba Band Trip 2023 (by Izaiah Johnson)...Members of the Elba High School Marching Figer Band visited Universal Studios in Orlando, Florida earlier this month. The March 16th-18th trip allowed the band members and chaperones to stay at the Dockside Inn and Suites Hotel for two nights. The group enjoyed all the rides and food at Islands of Adventures and Universal Studios. Some of the band members rode the new roller coaster, The Velociocoaster. It was a very fast thrill ride. The band members even watched "The Mythical Realms of Mardi Gras" parade on March 17th and on Saturday the 18th watched "The Horror Make-Up Show". Elba's Aretha Wright was chosen as an 'experiment subject' in the Saturday show. She had a fun time in the show. The students had an incredible time and are grateful for the opportunity to go on the trip thanks to Elba's band program.

"Under Age, Under Arrest" program comes to Elba High by Ivony Myrick & Rebeckah Duncan

On Friday, March 10, the

'Under Age, Under Arrest" program visited Elba High School where presenters explained the consequences of drugs and alcohol use for minors.

There were four guests who came and spoke to the Elba High School students about the use of Fentanyl as well as driving under the influence. Minors across the U.S have died due to Fentanyl, vape, and alcohol use under the age of 18.

Students were shown video and photo evidence of what drug use can do to the body when intoxicated or the daughter was killed in a car accident due to a drunk driver. The mother explained that not only are drunk drivers risking their life, but they also are risking the lives of everyone else on the road when they choose to drive impaired. The program was very enlightening for Elba stu-
